

God ... You've Got Mail

Prayer Seminar

Sponsored by Greater Tyler
Women's Prayer Ministry

Thursday,
January 25, 2007

9 a.m. to 1 p.m.

and

7 to 9 p.m.

Glenwood Church of Christ

5210 Hollytree Drive in Tyler, Texas

Featuring Dee Brestin, author of

"The Friendships of Women,"
"Falling in Love with Jesus"
and "A Woman of Worship."

God ... You've Got Mail

Daytime Prayer Seminar:
January 25, 2007 9 a.m. - 1 p.m.

Barbara Sandiford

"Download Prayer 101"
How To Enrich Your Prayer Life

Katie Lund

"Boot Up Your Prayer Life with the Power of The Trinity"

Lana Packer

"Click On Your Soul Provider"
Praying God's Heart & Listening To His Voice

Loretta VanCleave

"Snail Mail"
The Blessings of Prayer Journaling

MaryM. "Shelley" Drake "How To Pray When Your Systems Crash"
Praying in Difficult Circumstances

Dee Brestin

Lunchtime Keynote Speaker

Evening Prayer Event:
January 25, 2007 7 - 9 p.m.

Praise & Worship with Keynote Speaker Dee Brestin

Reservation Info:

Daytime Prayer Seminar registration fee is $10 (includes choice of 2 breakout sessions and lunch). Evening Prayer Event is free but reservation is required. Registration deadline is January 22. For reservations call (903) 509-3634 or email aliceavery@sbcglobal.net. Send checks for Day Seminar to: Greater Tyler Women's Prayer Ministry, P.O. Box 7072, Tyler, TX 75711.

Dee Brestin is most recognized for her best-selling book, "The Friendship of Women" and has been referred to as "The Friendship Lady," sharing the power and pain of women's friendships across the country.

Author of 23 Bible studies, Dee's passion lies in teaching women how to dig into God's Word for themselves and encouraging them to climb higher in their relationship with Him. Dee has co-authored the "Falling in Love with Jesus" trilogy studies with Kathy Troccoli.

Dee has been a repeated guest of Focus on the Family and continues to enjoy traveling and speaking to women nationwide.

Born and raised in South Africa, Barbara Sandiford serves as a missionary with her husband at Youth with a Mission in Tyler, where she facilitates new staff training and coordinates the pastoral care for the 250 permanent YWAM staff members. Barbara has ministered in more than 12 nations. Her passion is to illuminate, inspire and motivate human potential through divine truth.

After teaching either children's Sunday school or Vacation Bible School for more than 25 years, Katie Lund has "graduated" to teaching women for the past three years. She spends her free time volunteering at Bethesda Clinic, Hospice of East Texas, and initiating prayer groups in her daughters school. She and her husband Steve are eagerly expecting their first grandchild.

One of the greatest joys in Lana Packard's life is encouraging women with the encouragement she herself has found from the Bible and the Lord. Lana believes the Bible gives hope, no matter where you live! She has helped to start and grow dynamic women's ministries in the United States and abroad. Lana served cross-culturally for more than 20 years, and currently live in Marshall, Texas, with husband David.

A native of Dalhart, Texas, Loretta Lucas VanCleave loves tea parties, bubble baths, and teaching or facilitating Bible studies. A cancer survivor, Loretta will celebrate 50 years of marriage to husband Bob this December. Loretta says, "I have found that writing out the thoughts that come to me helps me to clarify to myself my relationship with God."

Mary M. "Shelley" Drake desires to share God's love, His truths, and encouragements with all. "I want to introduce others to the incredible grace and opportunity that come from trusting God," she says. Shelley has extensive education and experience in counseling and biblical education and has worked with several non-profit groups.

